NAGAOKA FIREWORKS TOUR Aug.02-03, 2017 (Wed-Thu)

Nagaoka city in Niigata Prefecture, which take just 1 hour 30 minute from Tokyo by Shinkansen :the Super express Toki, facing the Sea of Japan, has unusually heavy snowfall even compared with other places around the world. Located in the basin of the Shinano River, this is a region famous for its prosperous rice cultivation and production of Japanese rice wine.

The area is also renowned for its traditional culture, such as the NISHIKIGOI and TANADA (terraced paddy field), and the Nagaoka Festival (including the Nagaoka Fireworks Display held at the beginning of August).
